NEW CONGRESS CABINET SURPRISES

First Woman General Secretary

JAWAHAR INFUSES FRESH BLOOD IN HIGH COMMAND

Will Invite Minority Leaders To Working Committee Meeting

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

The Congress President, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, officially announced to-night the names of members of the New Congress Working Committee.

In a statement Pt. Nehru says: "Under Article XX of the Congress Constitution, I nominate the following members of the Working Committee:

Maulana Abul Kalam Azad,
Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel,
Dr. Rajenrda Prasad,
Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan,
Pt. Govind Ballabh Pant,
Mr. C. Rajagopalachari,
Mr. Rafi Ahmad Kidwai,
Mr. Sarat Chandra Bose,
Shrimati Kamaladevi (Karnatak),
Mr. P. H. (Rao Saheb) Patwardhan (Maharashtra),
Mr. Fakruddin Ahmed (Assam),
Sardar Pratap Singh (Punjab)
Shrimati Mridula Sarabhai,

Dr. Balkrishna V. Keskar.

TREASURER AND SECRETARIES

Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel will continue to act as Treasurer and Shri Mridula Sarabhai and Dr. Balakrishna Keskar will be the General Secretaries. Dr. Keskar is not at present a member of the A. I. C. C. but it is expected that he will find a place in the A. I. C. C. in the near future.

TRIBUTE TO COLLEAGUES

Pandit Nehru says: "I have found considerable difficulty in selecting names for the Working Committee, because I was loath to keep out the names of many old and valued colleagues who had shouldered the burden of Congress work in the Committee and the A. I. C. C. office for so long. At the same time, it was highly desirable for new elements to be taken into the Committee. I consulted my colleagues and notably Gandhiji in this matter and I have been largely guided by their advice though of course the responsibility for the final selection must remain with me. We felt that our old colleagues, who have long been considered as the elder statesmen of the Congress, should in any event be there to give us the benefit of their advice and experience. They should normally be invited to our Working Committee sessions. I should like also to invite a frequently as possible leading representatives of the Harijans, the Indian Christians and some of the smaller minorities to assist us in our labours. The work before us is not only heavy but of the most vital importance and we want the utmost co-operation from all Congressmen and from the country at large. It will be my endeavour to seek this co-operation".

GRATITUDE TO KRIPALANI

Pt. Nehru adds: "To Shri J. B. Kripalani, who has shouldered the burden of the Congress Secretaryship for many years, I should especially like to express my sense of gratitude and appreciation. I have every confidence that he will allow us to profit by his long experience of running the A. I. C. C. office.

"Shrimati Sarojini Naidu, though not now formally a member of the Working Committee, is as much part of us and our work as any one can be and she remains for us the pillar of strength and hope that she has always been. It is difficult to imagine a Working Committee without her. But in effect the Committee will not be without her help and co-operation.

"To all old members and new, I send my greetings at the outset of these new changes. May we all prove true and faithful servants of India and our great national organisation in the trying days ahead.—Jai Hind".

Syed Challenges Ministry

Asserts He Has Absolute Majority In House Of 60

KARACHI, July 9. (A.P.I.): Mr. G. M. Syed, Leader of the Opposition in the Sind Assembly, today addressed a communication to the Governor requesting His Excellency to call upon the Premier, Sir Ghulam Hussain Hidayatullah, to tender his resignation as he has forfeited the confidence of the majority. But in case the Premier still persists in claiming that he commands a majority Mr. Syed has further requested His Excellency to facilitate the taking up of the "No-Confidence" motion already tabled by his party.

Informing the Governor that two members, Khan Bahadur Fazal Mohamed Laghari and Khan Sahib Sardar-khan Khoso, have resigned from the League Assembly Party and joined the Assembly Coalition Party, Mr. Syed adds that the strength of the League Party is now 25. Two or three more members will also resign and join the opposition. "In fact several members continue to be in the Muslim League Party solely because that party is in power", says Mr. Syed and adds, "I command absolute majority in a house of 60. My party are fully prepared to take up immediately the responsibility of running the Government.

Tories Want India Debate Next Week

LONDON, July 9. (Reuter): There is a possibility, I understand, of a debate on India in both Houses of Parliament early next week, though ton, "Reuter's" political correspondent.

Discussions are proceeding between the Government and the opposition about the possibility of such a debate, which, the Conservative Party is beno decision has yet been taken by the Government, cables Fraser Wighlieved to desire before Parliament goes into summer recess in a few weeks' time.

Bombay Nominations To Constituent Assembly

The Secretary of the Bombay Legislature Congress Party has issued a circular to all members requesting them not to file or propose or second any nomination for the Constituent Assembly until the list of candidates is finally approved by the Leader.

POSTAL STRIKE WILL BEGIN AS PLANNED

Union Not Prepared To Accept Chamanlal's Gratuitous Advice, Says Dalvi

Mr. V. G. Dalvi, Hon. General Secretary, All-India Postmen and Lower Grade Staff Union (including R. M. S.) Union, has issued the following:

Some propaganda is being made on behalf of the Director-General, Posts and Telegraphs both in the Press and on the Radio to the effect that the strike of the Postmen and Lower Grade Staff may not materialise. I wish to contradict this propaganda by stating that the Postmen and the Lower Grade Staff throughout practically the whole of India will go on strike from the midnight of the 10th of July. The demands of the Union are just and reasonable. There is no Official move yet showing any inclination to concede the demands. None of the demands are before the Adjudicator. The Union cannot therefore accept the gratuitous advice of the self-styled "powerful" Federation of my friend Diwan Chamanlal to postpone the strike until the award of the Adjudicator is out. The Postmen and Lower Grade Staff are fighting the battle and their victory which is assured will benefit all the Postal and Telegraph employees, including the members of Diwan Chamanlal's "powerful" Federation.

The Union greatly regrets the serious inconvenience that the strike will cause to the public owing to the obdurate and unsympathetic attitude of the Department under the bureaucratic inspiration of the new Care-taker Government. The strike will be very peacefully conducted, strictly on the principles of non-violence. There is full public sympathy for the honest postman and I am sure the pubuc will show their sympathy to him by giving unstinted support to the just cause for which he is fighting.

POSTMEN RESUME WORK IN GUJARAT

AHMEDABAD, July 9, (A.P.I.): Postmen with strike badges have resumed the distribution of posts in the city which was suspended owing to communal rioting.

The Secretary of the Gujarat Postmen and Lower Grade Staff Union has called upon the postmen to go on strike with effect from July 11, in accordance with the decision of the All-India Postmen and Lower Grade Staff Union.

8 LEAGUE M.L.A.S DON'T ATTEND KARACHI MEETING

KARACHI, July 9. (A.P.I.): A meeting of the League Parliamentary Party held this evening at the residence of the Premier decided the procedure to be followed at the time of voting on the election to the Constituent Assembly. About eight members including Khan Bahadur Fazal Mohammed Laghari and Khan Sahib Sardar Khan Khoso who resigned from the party yesterday did not attend the meeting. To ensure the success of the three Muslim League nominees the party divided itself into groups and the members will exercise single transferable votes.

THREE GOVERNORS TO SEE VICEROY

SIMLA. July 9 (API): It is understood that the Governors of U.P. Bihar and C. P., are shortly expected in Simla to pay a visit to the Viceroy.

NO POSTAL STRIKE IN MADRAS

Information having been received that the postmen and lower grade staff in the Madras circle have decided not to partfcipate in the strike. All kinds of postal articles for post offices in the circle will continue to be accepted, says a communique. Similarly all postal facilities will remain available to the public in the following states:

Gwalior, Patiala, Jind, Nabha and Chamba.

The areas in which postal deliveries are already being made without restriction are Assam, Central Provinces, Rajputana, Berar, Central India, Sind and Baluchistan.

The offices situated within these areas, as also in Madras and the states mentioned above will not, however, accept unregistered parcels and will not book registered and insured letters, parcels and V. P. articles and money orders for places in the rest of India until further notice.

DELHI POSTMEN TO JOIN STRIKE

NEW DELHI, July 9, (API): A decision to go on strike from July 11 was made at a largely attended meeting of postmen held in New Delhi this evening under the auspices of the Delhi Branch of the All India Postmen and Lower Grade Staff (including RMS Union).

The meeting was attended by about 600 postmen who wore red bands on their arms.

JAMMU POSTMEN'S DECISION

NEW DELHI, July 9, (API): Postmen and lower grade staff of the Jammu Union have unanimously resolved to go on strike on July 11, says the President of the Postmen Union Jammu Tawi, in a telegram.

All kinds of postal articles will continue to be accepted for Convention States Post Offices, says a notification issued by the Chief Superintendent Central Telegraph Office, Bombay.

"J. P.'s" SUPPORT

BOMBAY, July 9, (API): "The postal strike scheduled to begin on the midnight of July 10 deserves the full sympathy of the public." says Mr. Jai Prakash Narain, Congress Socialist leader, in a press statement.

Workers Serve Strike Notice

At a meeting of oil workers held on Sunday last under the presidentship of Mr. G. G. Mehta, it was resolved to serve a fourteen-day notice of strike on behalf of the union to the owners of shops dealing in retail and wholesale business in oil, if their demands for a basic minimum salary, dearness allowance, month's privilege leave with pay etc. were not granted.

New Indian Director Of World Bank

BOMBAY, July 9. (A.P.I.): It is learnt that Dr. B. K. Madan, at present Deputy Secretary of the Indian Tariff Board, has been appointed alternate Executive Director of the International Monetary Fund and he will shortly proceed to Washington to take up his new appointment.

DEADLOCK IN CHINA AGAIN

NANKING, July 9, (Reuter): Chinese Government and Communist delegates have reached a complete deadlock in China's protracted peace talks, statements by both sides suggested to-day.

The principal reason for the deadlock, according to Communists, is the question of civil administration. They say that 20,000,000 people in North Kaingsu and North Anhwei will lose all benefits of social reform now being carried out if the local civil administration is turned over to the Government.

Fighting is meanwhile, flaring up in North Hupeh.

HARIJAN 'MORCHA' TO MAHATMA

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

Followers of the Scheduled Castes Federation under the leadership of Mr. B. K. Gaikwad, President, Bombay Provincial Scheduled Castes Federation and Mr. P. N. Rajbhoj, General Secretary of the All-India Scheduled Castes Federation, will take a "morcha" to Mahatma Gandhi's residence in Poona during his stay there if the "promised" interview by Mahatma Gandhi to a delegation of Scheduled Castes Federation does not take place soon.

The Delegation is seeking interview with Mahatma Gandhi to get "clear cut" answers to questions submitted to him by the All-India Scheduled Castes Federation at the time of the A.I.C.C. session in Bombay last week-end.

One of the questions asked is: "Does the Congress regard the untouchables as a minority"?

Another question the Federation asks is: "Why does the Congress oppose the demand of the Scheduled Castes for separate electorates on the ground of common religion"?

Gandhi-Ambedkar Meeting Likely

(From Our Correspondent)
NEW DELHI, July 9.

According to private advices received here there is a possibility of a Gandhi-Ambedkar meeting at an early date. Dr. Ambedkar, it will be recalled, had addressed to Mahatma Gandhi at the time of the Gandhi-Jinnah meeting in August, 1944, stating he would be willing to meet Gandhiji if the latter was willing to discuss the Scheduled Castes' case. Some common friends, I am told, have taken up the question and are arranging a meeting between the two leaders.

According to the same source, Dr. Ambedkar stands a good chance for election to the Constituent Assembly from Bengal where he has filed his nomination papers.

Mahatma Back In Poona

POONA, July 9. (API): Mahatma Gandhi arrived in Poona today from Bombay.

He alghted at Shivaji Nagar Station and walked nearly a mile to the Nature Cure Clinic where he stays.

BIKANER MEETS MAHATMA

BOMBAY, July 9, (API): H. H. the Maharaja of Bikaner met Mahatma Gandhi today and, it is understood, discussed with him questions relating to the Constitutional reforms he proposes to introduce in his State.

Kher And Gilder For Pandharpur

POONA, July 9. (A.P.I.): Mr. B. G. Kher, Premier of Bombay and Dr. M. D. D. Gilder, Minister for Health, left for Pandharpur today to study the sanitary and other conditions there at the time of ashadhi fair which commences tomorrow. They will return on July 11.

Jinnah Meets Nizam

HYDERABAD (Deccan), July 9. (A. P. I.): H. E. H. the Nizam accorded an interview to Mr. M. A. Jinnah this morning. The interview lasted about one hour.

"NO CONFIDENCE" AGAINST BELGIAN CABINET

BRUSSELS, July 9. (Reuter): After Belgian Prime Minister Achille Van Acker's Government's failure today to obtain a vote of confidence in the Belgian Senate, it is expected that M. Van Acker will see the Regent of Belgium, Prince Charles, tonight and present his Cabinet's resignation. By 79 votes to 7, the senators expressed no confidence in the present Cabinet.

Congress Plans For Constituent Assembly

Working Committee Appoints Expert Body

AZAD AND ABDUL GHAFFAR KHAN TO HAVE WALKOVER FROM FRONTIER?

BOMBAY, July 9. (A.P.I.): The old Congress Working Committee, before it dissolved itself yesterday, decided to set up an Expert Committee for the purpose of preparing material for the Constituent Assembly.

The Expert Committee is to consist of: Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru (Chairman), Mr. Asaf Ali, Mr. K. M. Munshi, Sir N. Gopalaswamy Iyengar, Prof. K. T. Shah, Mr. D. R. Gadgil (of the Gokhale School of Economics), Prof. Humayun Kabir and Mr. K. Santanam (of Delhi).

AZAD FROM FRONTIER

PESHAWAR, July 9. (A.P.I.): Only four persons have so far filed their nomination papers for the three seats to the Constituent Assembly from the Frontier Province. Three Congressmen, Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan and Dr. Khan Sahib have filed their nomination papers. Dr. Khan Sahib will withdraw his candidature after the nomination papers of Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan and Maulana Abul Kalam Azad have been accepted.

Only one Muslim League candidate, Sardar Bahadur Khan, has so far filed nomination papers for the remaining one seat. It is expected that after scrutiny of the papers, only three persons will remain in the field for the three seats—two Congress and one Muslim League.

No Confidence Move Forestalled

KARACHI, July 9. (A.P.I.): It is understood that a notification is being issued today amending summons to the forthcoming session of the Sind Legislative Assembly on July 11 that the session is a special one specifically convened for the purpose of electing Sind's representatives to the Constituent Assembly. No other business save the election of Sind's representative can, it is pointed out, be transacted during the session, which will last for two days.

The notification, it is stated, puts an end to the speculation on the part of the Opposition about the prospects of dislodging the Hidayatullah Ministry in Sind.

BALUCHISTAN ELECTIONS POSTPONED

QUETTA, July 9. (A.P.I.): The election of the Baluchistan member to the Constituent Assembly which was to take place on July 12 has been postponed for a week, the "Associated Press of India" was authoritatively informed today.

Nomination will now take place on July 16.

Postponement is due to the joint demand of Qazi Mohamed Isa, President, Provincial Muslim League, and Khan Abdul Samad Khan, President of the Anjuman-i-Watan. Both leaders are now flying to Bombay and Delhi to confer with the Muslim League President and the Congress President respectively.

Both the leaders allege that the union of the Sardars of the Shahi Jirga has been brought about through official pressure.

The Jirga has nominated Nawab Mohamed Khan Jogezai as its nominee for the election. He is said to have the support of 44 members out of the total strength of 75 electors of one Baluchistan representative.

Assam Nominees

SHILLONG, July 8. (A.P.I.): The Joint Board set up by the Assam Congress Parliamentary Party have selected seven persons for election to the Constituent Assembly. They are: Messrs. Gopinath Bardoloi, Rohinkumar Chaudhury, Omekumar Das, Basant Kumar Das, Akshaykumar Das, Rev. J. J. M. Nichols Roy and Dharanidhar Basumatarai.

In addition to these seven candidates and the three nominees of the Muslim League, three others, namely Mr. Surendra Nath Burogohain (Ahom community), Khan Sahib Mudabbir Hussain Chaudhury and Khan Bahadur Nurul Hussain Khan have also filed their nomination papers.

Mr. Mayeenuddin Chaudhury, (Muslim League), member of the Assam Legislative Council, and Mr. Muhammad Karamat Ali (Jamiet-ul-Ulema) have also filed their nominations.

Khan Sahib Mudabbir Hussain Chaudhury and Khan Bahadur Nurul Hussain Khan are members of the Muslim League Party in the Assembly.

Sir Syed Mohammed Saadullah, Mr. Abdul Matin Chowdhury and Mr. Abdul Hameed are the candidates selected by the League Central Parliamentary Board.

BENGAL LEAGUERS' NOMINATIONS

CALCUTTA, July 9, (A.P.I.): Mr. H. S. Suhrawardy, Premier of Bengal, Sir Azizul Haque, Khwaja Sir Nazimuddin and Mrs. Ikramullah are among the latest batch of candidates to be nominated for election to the Constituent Assembly from Bengal.

WHAT CAN YOUR GARDEN GROW?

Do you know that a plot of land, 1000 square feet, can yield approximately 300 lbs. of potatoes? And these days every extra pound of food which can be won from the soil is needed. You can easily grow potatoes or other equally valuable vegetables.

Make your garden supply the needs of your own kitchen, your servants and your friends. This is the practical way in which you can help relieve the shortage.

Many of these and other vegetables can be grown in town gardens, according to the season.

Potato	Brinjals	Luffa
Sweet Potato	Peas	Cucumber
Radish	Turnips	Cabbage
Carrots	Spinach	Cauliflower
Onions	Tomatoes	Beans
		Lady's Finger.

Gourds of all types.

★ MAIZE, a quick growing and useful cereal, can be easily grown in town gardens. Plant 'early' maize.

HOW TO PREPARE YOUR SOIL

1. Pull out tall weeds and stubble.
2. Break up the soil and turn it over.
3. Spread manure and fork it in.
4. Dig the soil over once more.
5. Prepare beds of convenient size.
6. Level and reduce the surface soil to fine condition.

Krishna Menon Says His Claim On West Africa Will Go Unheeded

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

Mr. V. K. Krishna Menon, Secretary of the India League, London, was given a reception by the Journalists Association of India this evening, Mr. K. Srinivasan presiding.

During the course of an informal talk, Mr. Menon answered questions extensively, ranging from matters as far removed as the cost of living in London to Soviet policy in different countries of the East.

Referring to the work of the India League in London, he said that the League constituted one of the fronts on which the battle for India's freedom was being fought. Perhaps it was not such a heroic front as the others, but its main objective was India's liberation. He quite realised that the freedom of India had to be fought out in India and not in London. But by propaganda and counter-propaganda, by influencing the members of the Labour Party and similar measures they were doing their bit.

The speaker was bombarded with a number of questions on such subjects as the position and the status of Communists in England, whether he considered that the Radical Democratic Party branch office in London had official support and if he believed in the sincerity of British intentions.

In reply to the last question, he said that he did not understand the significance of the word 'sincerity' in relation to politics. He always judged political policies by their results and repercussions.

In reply to another question pertaining to South Africa, he said that though it could not be stated that beyond the intellectual circles in England, the South African Indian question had drawn the attention of anybody else; still it could be stated that General Smuts would not get an inch of territory adjacent to South Africa, for which he had been clamouring. Referring to Smuts' book on Human Rights, he said laughingly that it was meant only for export and not for practising in South Africa itself.

U. S. FOOD MISSION FOR BOMBAY

Leader Says Rationing Works Well In South India

BANGALORE, July 9, (A.P.I.): After fulfilling a crowded programme the unofficial American Famine Mission which arrived here yesterday left this afternoon by air for Bombay. Before their departure at a press conference Mr. Theodare Schultz, Leader of the Mission, paid a warm tribute to the administration in South India and Mysore State with regard to the handling of the food problem. In the opinion of Mr. Schultz the overall management of the food situation in the southern zone of India was more efficient than any European country had achieved during the stress of war. "It is because of this, it seems to me", he added, "that any food you get from outside will reach the people straight and will not go into the black-market".

Tariff Board Reports On 9 Industries

Aluminium, Biggest Industry Requiring Protection

BOMBAY, July 9 (API): The Indian Tariff Board, it is learnt, has so far submitted its final report on nine industries to the Government of India recommending either to maintain the present measure of protection afforded to some industries or to enhance it in certain others.

Some of the industries in regard to which the final reports have been submitted are calcium chloride, phosphates and phospheric acid, photographic chemicals, grinding wheels, bichromates, antimony, aluminium and steel baling hooks.

Aluminium is stated to be the biggest industry requiring protection. More than a sum of rupeee five crores is reported to have been invested in this industry alone and others are stated to be comparatively smaller ones. The present production of aluminium in this country satisfies only 25 per cent of India's requirements and the remaining 75 per cent is imported. This industry, it is learnt, is capable of expansion, provided capital equipment could be obtained. The Tariff Board's recommendation in respect of such industries which are capable of expansion seem to fall under two heads. First, the Government of India must help in obtaining capital equipment for the expansion of such industries and secondly afford sufficient protection as against foreign competition.

Status Of Women

Hansa Mehta On U. N. O. Commission's Work

"It is up to the members of the UNO Assembly to translate into action the recommendations made by the Commission on the status of women" observed Mrs. Hansa Mehta at a meeting held under the auspices of the Bombay Presidency Women's Council on Tuesday evening at the Y. W. C. A. She observed that as the members of the UNO Assembly were representatives of Governments of different nations, it should be possible for them to implement the suggestions in their own countries through legislation.

Mrs. Mehta expressed the hope that he report of the commission would be approved by the UNO Assembly because it was based upon the fundamental principle of establishing democracy in all countries. The women also stressed that without democracy there could be no hope for a lasting peace nor the possibility of women enjoying equal rights with men. Mrs. Mehta spoke of the wonderful team work the women were able to do during the last session of the Commission and added that all of them were convinced of the important role women have to play in the future of mankind. Their demand for equal social, civil, political and economic rights was not in the spirit of sex-antagonism".

To achieve the aims of the commission observed Mrs. Mehta, it was necessary to give their work the widest possible Publicity through the press, films and radio. Speaking about the commission's demand in relation to India she opined that there may not be much opposition to the attainment of political and economic rights but she feared to encounter it in the case of social reforms such as the abolition of child marriage bagamy and the right to divorce.

Mrs. Sulochana Modi welcomed Mrs. Mehta and Mrs. Pathkar passed a vote of thanks. The former presided on the occasion.

Contract Not Rendered Void

(Before the Hon. Mr. Justice Chagla)
Baldevdas C. Parikh .... Petitioner.
Versus
Messrs. Khimji Poonja .. Respondents

A question of considerable importance to the Cotton market was decided recently by his Lordship on a petition to set aside an award made in pursuance of an arbitration clause contained in contract notes sent by the respondents to the petitioner who had employed them as his agents to effect transactions in cotton according to the By-Laws of the East India Cotton Association. The petitioner contended that the contract notes in question not being in the form prescribed by those by-laws, the contract was void and that consequently the arbitration clause was also void and there was no valid award.

JUDGMENT

His Lordship referred to by-law 82 which provided that contracts between members and their constituents should be made subject to the by-laws and a contract note in the prescribed rendered in respect of every such contract, and pointed out that it made a clear and emphatic distinction between a contract and a contract note. Section 8 of the Bombay Cotton Contracts Act 1932 laid down that a "contract" not in accordance with the by-laws was void. In the present case, it was not suggested that the contract was not in accordance with any of the by-laws. The only grievance was that the "contract note" was not in the prescribed form. His Lordship held that that did not render the contract between the parties void, and therefore the award based on the arbitration agreement contained in it was valid and binding. His Lordship, therefore, dismissed the petition with costs.

Mr. M. D. Amin and Mr. K. K. Desai instructed by Messrs. Motichand and Devidas appeared for the petitioner.

Mr. M. V. Desai instructed by Messrs. Kanga and Co. appeared for the respondents.

TWO NEW CONGRESS CORPORATORS

In consequence of the resignation of two conciliors, Dr. M. D. D. Gilder, Minister and Mr. P. K. Savant, M. L. A. from Second Ward (Esplanade) and Eleventh Ward (Mazgaon and Tarwadi) respectively, two seats have fallen vacant in the Bombay Municipal Corporation. Mr. G. P. Hathesingh, and Mr. Chimanlal Chakubhai Shah, Congress Socialist, submitted their nomination papers. As both the members are un-contested they will be declared elected.

Tansa River Causeway Submerged

The Assistant Secretary, W.I.A.A writes:

Information has been received by the WIAA from the Assistant Enginner, Bhiwandi Sub-Division that the Tansa river Causeway in mile 46/2 of the Bombay Ahmedabad Road is submerged. The height of water at present above top of causeway is 5-1/2 ft. The causeway cannot therefore be used by traffic. A further announcement will be made by the WIAA when information is received that the dip becomes passable.

TATAS SCRAPE HOME

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

TATA S. C. 1
CITY POLICE 0

Despite the fact that the last time they encountered the City Police in the Harwood League this year, the Tatas were held to a draw, the match this evening appeared to be rather one-sided on paper. Far from putting up a tame display, the City Police came so near repeating their former success that not until referee Humphreys blew his final whistle could the Tatas heave a sigh of relief at passing on into the next round.

Right from the start, the City Police started attacking and kept up such a barrage that they succeeded in obtaining no less than half a dozen penalty corners before the game was 15 minutes' old. That they were unable to convert any of these to advantage was due partly to the inaccuracy of the centres and partly due to the absence of a capable forward to convert it. One such penalty, however, almost resulted in a goal.

From the goal-mouth melee, a cleaning was made and right-back Fermer taking a shot from a distance of about 45 yards was distinctly unfortunate to hit the upright barely a couple of inch from the goal. The difference that these couple of inchesmight have made may be realised when it is learned that Custodian Thingalaya was not quick enough to cover the distance.

This was, however, the nearest the City Police came to scoring a goal. The half-time found the teams on terms of equality without any side having scored.

Midway through the second half, almost exactly from the spot from where Fermer shot Ananthram essayed a perfect pass and with Custodian Hawkswell beaten by the bounce, centre-forward Jovenlano had all his work cut and dried to head the ball into the yawning net.

In spite of the spate of goals over the week-end, the limitations of the Tata's attack were thoroughly exposed when they came against a side whose defence though sound was by no means formidable.

Conspicuous by his untiring work amongst the losers was left-half Deatker who acquitted himself remarkably well.

The Teams:—

TATA S. C.:— Thingalaya Mandon and Papen; Ananthram, Shetty and Damodar, Mani, Krishnamurthi, Joveniano, Menzes and Peter.

CITY POLICE:— Hawkswell, Fermer and F. Ross; Wakefield, G. Ross and Deatker; Shanahan, Woodcock, Adams, Palin and Smith.

Referee:— Humphreys.

Today's match at 5-45 p. m. Tradea vs. B. B. R. C.

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The human mind, which is so much greater than the personalities it carries, is passing on towards creative realisations of the vastest sort, and this quabbling legacy from the ages of scarcity fades to unimportance even where it still extends. To realise the inspiration of modern possibilities, to realise the gigantic promises that are breaking through the confusions of contemporary reality, makes these little bits of showing-off and our mutual gibes and belittlement seem pitful stuff.

—H. G. Wells.

The Bombay Chronicle

HARMFUL PROPAGANDA

Mr. P. N. Rajbhoj, General Secretary of the Scheduled Castes Federation, has announced the decision of the Federation to launch a passive resistance movement which will commence in Poona on July 15 during the session of the Bombay Legislative Assembly and which will take the form of violating the order of the District Magistrate of Poona prohibiting meetings, demonstrations and processions in the area half a mile from the Council Hall and the Secretariat. The movement will then, it is announced, be extended to other provinces in one form or other, to be decided upon later. And what is all this hullaballoo for? Mr. Rajbhoj says that the campaign is against what the Scheduled Castes regard as the injustice done to them in the Cabinet Mission's proposals, which, they say, ignore their existence as a separate political entity. Such a view has not been expressed by the representatives of the Scheduled Castes, the legislatures or by any institution fairly representing these castes. The Federation is a very recent body, barely five years old, and consists of the followers of Dr. Ambedkar and a few others. If it felt aggrieved by the decisions of the Mission, one would expect that it would protest primarily against those decisions, against either the Constituent Assembly or the proposed Interim Government or both. But, says Mr. Rajbhoj: "What has been done by the Cabinet Mission to the Scheduled Castes is the direct result of Congress machination and the Federation is, therefore, bound to take action against the Congress as well".

The whole show seems to have been got up for the purpose of inducing the Congress, through pressure, to ensure representation to the Federation both in the Constituent Assembly and the Interim Government. Now, the Congress has proved at the elections to be more representative of the Scheduled Castes than any other body has. Congressmen, more than any other set of workers, are striving to uplift the Harijans and extirpate untouchability; whereas the Federation is seeking further to isolate the Harijans from the Hindus and thereby perpetuate untouchability. Congress will, therefore, do every thing possible to safeguard the interests of the Scheduled Castes both in the Constituent Assembly and in the Interim Government. The proposed campaign of passive resistance, if at all pursued seriously for any length of time, can only harm the Scheduled Castes. Earnest leaders of these castes cannot do better than stand by the Congress in its efforts to win Swaraj and to frame a constitution safeguarding the interests of every section of the Indian nation.

The Movement Spreads

We welcome the letter addressed by the "Council for Human Rights", Durban, to the Union Minister of Justice asking for an inquiry into certain aspects of the Indian Passive Resistance Campaign "which reflect adversely on the Department of Justice". We do not know if the Council includes Indians but its letter is signed by the Chairman and the Secretary of the Council, both of whom are Europeans. The letter justly contrasts the drastic action improperly taken against Indians under the Riotous Assemblies Act for merely token offences with the failure to take any action against the Europeans who manhandled Indians. It points out that "none of the European hooligans guilty of assaults on Indian men and women passive resisters have been prosecuted, although the police have had ample opportunity for making arrests". The letter further alleges that "the attitude of the police, if not passively acquiescent, was at least open to criticism." The Indians who deliberately violate any law do not expect to be let off lightly. But surely there must be some decency in the administration of the law against all who offend it. Or is it that there is to be discrimination against Indians both in the framing of laws and in their enforcement? The European signatories to the letter in question have reason to be seriously perturbed over the mounting racial friction and disharmony in Natal and the whole of South Africa" and to fear that if, "in meting out justice, discrimination on grounds of politics or races is allowed to go on unchecked, a very grave position will develop."

If the double-barelled discrimination against Indians is expected to frighten them into submission, the authorities concerned will not be long in being disillusioned. Fresh volunteers to offer resistance are pouring into Durban from various parts of South Africa, Mrs. Gort, who is herself due to offer resistance very soon, says: "We will be followed by many others. In addition to Indians, a large number of natives in Cape Town are anxious to associate themselves with the passive resistance movement, and within the next few months, it is probable that about one hundred non-Europeans will leave to take part in the demonstrations in Durban". Even without the entry of the indigenous population into it the campaign is bound to succeed. But when they do enter the Whites will realise their blunder and will find it necessary to make larger concessions.

Frankly Speaking

Unanswerable Memorandum

The memorandum on Palestine sent to Britain individually by all the Arab States after the League meeting at Bludan has now been released. It is short and to the point. And it asks for nothing more than that the British should honour their own obligations to the spirit and requirements of the United Nations' pact. That is to say, they should, as the Mandatory, seek agreement as soon as possible, with the States directly concerned—and, with due deference to President Truman and the might of the United States which is inspiring him, the United States is not one of them—in the future of Palestine. And pending agreement the British should "avoid taking measures which may be in opposition to the pledges given in the White Paper". If the question of Palestine were to be considered in any honesty and on any principle of democratic ethics, this memorandum would be unconditionally accepted for the simple reason that no honest objection to it is possible. But it may be ignored. In that case, Mr. Attlee and Mr. Truman had better realise at least the simple fact that every Arab State is concerned in the safety of Arab Palestine. And they had better think over the consequences of defying them.

Food Supplies In Bombay

Mr. Dinkarrao Desai, Civil Supplies Minister, has done well to correct the inaccurately published report of the Premier's speech on food supplies in the province. Mr. Kher was reported as having stated that, as Government had taken all steps to procure and distribute food grains which would last till November or December, there was now no apprehension of famine in Bombay province; whereas, Mr. Desai now points out, the report dropped Mr. Kher's qualifying clause: "If all the imports that had been promised to Bombay province were realised". As a matter of fact, Mr. Desai tells us, we are not yet out of the wood and much depends on the promised imports. We should like to know the immediate possibilities of the "Grow More Food" campaign in the province and what progress it has already made during the year. The public will be grateful for a full statement on the subject setting forth the facilities offered by Government, the extent they have been utilised by the public, the area brought under cultivation as a result of this campaign and the difficulties preventing the people from making better use of the facilities offered by Government.

More Sind Defections

The politics of the Sind Muslim League is notoriously careerist. And if the League Ministry of Sir Ghulam Husain Hidayatullah got into office and is still there, the credit for it goes entirely to Sir Francis Mudie, the Governor, and to the, shall we say, accommodative policy of the Premier. One of the surest routes to Ministerial post was along the path of revolt against the Ministerial party. The Bundeali Khan affair is a classic instance. It could only happen in Sind and to Sir Ghulam Husain's Muslim League. But generous gifts of offices —regardless of worth and of financial responsibility, that is, regardless of any obligation to the interests of the mass of the people—cannot stop, much less cure a rot. It is a rot springing direct from the policies and principles of the Muslim League High Command which was concerned not with a sense of duty to the people as almost exclusively with the desire to win elections at any cost and with any candidate. A succession of crises was inevitable.

The Immediate Effect

So far Sir Ghulam Husain who, with the goodwill and approval of the High Command, and assistance by the Governor, has been freely exercising his unique talents for remaining in office, has successfully averted the fall of his Ministry. But the threat naturally gathers force with the rot continuously at work. Two other members of the Muslim League Assembly Party have resigned and joined the Opposition. The trouble for Sir Ghulam Husain—that is, if the two dissidents are open to temptation—is that he cannot multiply offices indefinitely. And if he persuades these two to enter the Ministry, that will very surely be a signal for a stampede of revolt. He is now definitely in a minority in the Assembly but we doubt if the Opposition will succeed in securing the Opportunity of defeating the Ministry at the forthcoming brief Session Sir Francis Mudie may be trusted to protect Sir Ghulam Husain who will thus, quite probably, linger on till September. But the immediate blow, which is grievous enough too, that the double defection has dealt to the League is that in all likelihood the Muslim League will lose one of the threee seats reserved for Sind Muslims in the Constituent Assembly. And it will be a veritable disappointment to Mr. M. A. Jinnah.

Parsis And Constituent Assembly

Sir,—Will you champion the cause of the Parsis, (who have rendered so much valuable & pioneering services in the political, social, economical educational, judicial and industrial upliftment of our mother India, in a measure quite beyond their numerical capacity and proportionately too much more than any other major or minor communities of this country) by demanding from the Congress leaders due recognition of their rightful place, according to their merits. Parsis have not asked for separate electorate or reserved seats. Hence it it not much more the pious duty of our Congress leaders to give them their merited share in the constitution making of independent India? Is it not their duty to offer at least half a dozen seats in the Constituent Assembly to these pioneers of Indian nationalism, and a few more to their women who have played such a prominent part in the upliftment of Indian Womanhood, and the cause of nation building?

Wheat Flour

Sir I am really amazed to find that the wheat flour in ration shops is now sold as a compulsory part of the wheat ration to ration card and ration permit holders in Bombay city and he Bombay Suburban District.

The Government authority is well aware that the flour is of 70 per cent extraction and hence very poor in viamins as 30 percent of bran which is admitted to be a valuable property is removed from the wheat while making this type of flour; and hence it is regrettable that the Government authority is compelling the citizens who are accustomed to use whole meal flour to use this type of flour and which is likely to impair their health.

The stock of this type of flour should be utilised for making bakers's white bread for which the public is clamouring and I fail to see why the Government do not supply the same to Bakers, but compel the citizens to use the same much against their wishes.

Black Market In Kanara

Sir,—While the popular Ministry is bent upon rooting out corruption and blackmarketing and we daily hear of arrests made in that connection black market, especially in cloth, is merrily flourishing in Karwar. This is due to incompetency and callousness of the local authorities. The local shopkeepers receive their quota at least once a month and every time the shops are "raided" by ill-clothed people who wait eagerly in the scorching heat, only to be told that the stock is finished. While hundreds of yards of cloth are brought monthly an ordinary man is denied even a yard of cloth. Where does all this cloth go? The Civil Supplies Minister will be visiting this place shortly. Will he look into the matter and take whatever steps he deems necessary to abolish the black-market so as to distribute the cloth equitably?

Linguistic Provinces

Sir,—As the Bombay Presidency is vast, it must be divided on Linguistic basis for administrative convenience and economic development. If this is done, Karnatak will have a division, composed of Belgaum, Dharwar, Bijapur and Karwar Districts. This must be called a "Commissioner's Karnatak Division" with its headquarters at Dharwar only as it is in the centre and also all the divisional offices of all departments are now already situated in this place.

This division must have Assistant Directors of the following Departments with their efficient staff:—

(1) Assistant Director of Agriculture.
(2) " " " Industries.
(3) " " " Transport.
(4) " " " Health.
(5) " " " Forest.
(6) " " " Education.
(7) " " " Co-Operative Society & Banks.

Each Assistant Director of each Department must have advisory and development boards composed of 10 members. Out of these ten, 5 must be M.L.A.'s and the other 5 must be selected from the public who are experts and well interested in the development of their respective Departments. The aim of each department must be to give full employment to all and to raise the general standard of life. As food, work, education, shelter and medical aid are the primary needs of man, the Provincial Governments must work hard in the co-operation with such divisions for the achievement of the goal in view.

Distortion Of History

Sir,—The Punjab University has recently resolved to get the history of India re-written with a view to remove communal bitterness. The object is no doubt praise-worthy. But the method adopted is defective. Communal harmony cannot be achieved by misrepresenting historical facts. It is like making history a harlot, which prostrates before every powerful aggressor. For instance, history praises Alexander as the World Conqueror because he succeeded in establishing an empire, but denounces Changez Khan as a rebel for he failed to do so, although both of them were equally criminal. Instead of attempting to prove Aurangzeb as an embodiment of religious toleration or the Brahman Peshawas and Manu as the true benefactors of the Shudras, the history should state facts but make it clear that the result of religious bigotry and the theory of birth-determined superiority of Brahman over Shudra is always a national disaster. Our past history is not the cause of our present-day communal bitterness. Even in England, people have fought seven years and hundred years wars against one another. But now they are all united as one. It is not the past history of India, but the present behaviour of her people towards one another that is responsible for communal bitterness. As long as a Brahman continues to treat a Hindu barber or a Hindu shoe-maker as his inferior for reason of his birth and as long as a caste Hindu continues to think that his food is polluted by the mere touch of a Moslem or a Christian, no amount of distortion of historical facts will help in bringing about communal harmony. The history of India should make it clear to our students that the caste system of the Hindus is responsible for the communal bitterness and never ending slavery of her people. Once the root cause of the trouble is realised by the younger generation, the whole thing will be set right in no time.

Railway Crossing-Gates

Sir,—I wonder how many of your readers undergo the agony of waiting at railway crossing gates for hours and still sit mum about it. Isn't it strange that in the 20th century—the scientific age of advance and progress—we are still facing such obstacles to progress and speed. I can cite from personal experience that I had to wait hours at railway crossing-gates, for a train to pass and then the shunting taking place on the same line, while a row of cars, trucks and bullock carts on either side of the gates staring at the benign gates to open, so that one could continue the journey to fulfil important engagements and sometimes to take patients to hospital. This does not happen in villages or in rural areas. This happens in business centres and towns, like Deolali, Poona-Queens Garden, gate—and Kirkee.

There is a move to have bridges over such gates, to avoid this great nuisance and inconvenience. But till then I suggest a remedy. This could be overcome by posting two police constables on either side to stop the traffic before the train is to pass, and immediately after, the traffic is released. One would ask, this is not feasible, as somebody would break the police signal and proceed and endanger a big accident with the moving train. If this is done obviously one meets with his own fate—if life is not precious to him—and secondly police prosecution, as a matter of course, for disobedience.

This is the only way. I think of overcoming this lethargy and I am told, it is already in practice, in continental countries. However, I would welcome any other suggestions from your readers, to overcome this inconvenience.

WHO WANTS PAKISTAN?

Researches In Delhi

(By L. G. Khare)

As I said in a previous article beginning the narration of my wanderings in Delhi, a lucky chance enabled me to meet again the sprightly niece of an old Muslim friend of mine in the lounge of the Imperial Hotel. I had imagined that Muslim ladies of status and culture took small interest in controversial politics. I was disillusioned.

Life And Death

"You haven't grown much since I saw you last," I said, as she recognised me immediately and came forward to greet me and introduced her husband to me. Two journeys to Europe had taught her how to combine western "chic" with eastern ease in dress and deportment. The colour of the lipstick she used harmonised with the rose-tinted tips of her well manicured fingers. Her draperies enveloped her gracefully and elegantly. I explained to her the nature of my visit to Delhi, regretted I had not kept in touch with her uncle and apologised to her husband for having missed him in Bombay. "But you want to know about Pakistan", she said, "we are all for Pakistan. Hindustan and Pakistan living amicably as two great nations—"

"Oh! there you are at it again. I say, may I leave you a minute? I shall put in a call to Calcutta."—and he left.

"There, there," sighed the young lady "he is making money all the while. He has not the time, not a minute, to spare for this matter of life and death. Life and death, you see, that is what the Begum Sahiba said."

"But do you really believe there are two nations in India?"

"There ought to be considering how shamelessly and villainously the Hindus have treated us." She warmed up to her subject. I realized that I was listening to an election speech by a Muslim League candidate in the United Provinces.

When she went to Europe the second time, I asked, was not her passport valid for a country called "the United Kingdom of the Helenes and the Croats", otherwise known as Yugoslavia. She must have passed through it. She had. Did she not think that old Serbia was a much better territorial unit than two people brought together arbitrarily? They were enthnically different. Here in India, were not more than three-fourths of Muslims enthnically of the same origin as the Hindus? I ran through the usual kind of arguments. They did not appeal to her in the least.

Lingistan In Bombay?

"I am not bothered about Muslim Homelands or whether the grandfathers of the present Muslims were Hindus", she declared. "They have developed a separate culture, different outlook on life, they have been systematically prevented by the Hindus from getting their just rights. Why should they not develop as a separate entity?" Then she made a curious point. She told me she had passed through Belgaum on her way to Bangalore. She had noticed that the Lingayats had a separate college there and the community in that region was largely Lingayat. She thought that if they wanted a separate State the Hindus would certainly not oppose the idea. I wondered at this rate how many 'stans' there would be in India. She was expatiating on the justice of the Pakistan demand, on how the defence problem would automatically resolve itself, when her husband returned. They had to attend a party and then go on to a show. Giving me the tips of her fingers in the approved Mrs. Naidu manner and warning me that she would soon make me a convert to Pakistan, the young lady took her leave, exacting a promise from me that I would some time come and stay with the couple in their Punjab home.

Live And Let Live

The Lalaji had arranged that I should meet some other people at his place next afternoon to hear views different from those which I may have already collected. My Muslim friend and I went to him at the appointed hour. A Jat gentleman, very tall and muscular, was awaiting us. He said he was a timber merchant and before the war used to be engaged in export and import. He was bitter about the Pakistan propaganda. He said it was a negation of the doctrine of live and let live. "Come to the 'bar' country, come over and stay with us in that land which young Saheb turned from a desert into a flower garden for us, and you will see—how we live on the whole, peacefully and amicably, Jats, Aroras, Khatris and Muslims and Sikhs. The more we have at stake, the more do we stand to lose through rioting, the less chance we have of coming to blows on every trumpery issue. It is the have-nothing, lose-nothing "goondas" of every community that create the mischief. And they are paid for by people who remain in the background."

"But don't you think if a large number of people want to live as a separate community, politically and socially, they are entitled to do that?" I asked him.

"Certainly they have the right but the populations are so inter-mixed in the Punjab, I do not know how you can buy out one community, compensating it, to go and live somewhere else. You cannot have Balkan methods of transference of populations here. Then there is the one vital problem. If you asked the Jat, the Khatri, the Muslim or any other cultivator to leave his land and even offered for it an absurdly high price, he will rise up in anger. The land is dearer to him than his life. No, Jinnah's Pakistan, if the British donated it to him, will have to digest minorities which will give him no peace. Meanwhile you know what is happening? Our business suffers while the squabble goes on and only the British importing interests benefit."

Aristocratic Ease

As we were listening to the Jat gentleman, a tall, bearded, elderly Muslim entered the room. The moment he came in, the Lalaji very ceremoniously received him and introduced me to him as a visitor from Bombay who wished to ascertain the truth behind the Pakistan demand. My Muslim friend whispered to me that the old gentleman was from an aristocratic family. He dealt in carpets and curios from Central Asia. He had no regular business premises. But on the second floor of his home could be found many a priceless carpet and curiosities from beyond the Hindukush. Over cups of coffee the bargain was struck. The aristocratic trader began to talk in an Urdu, three-fourths of which I could not understand. In his opinion millions of Muslims still regarded themselves as Indians first and Muslims afterwards. Did they not do the same in China?

Slow Poisoning

Then he brought up an interesting historical point. My Muslim friend interpreted to me in English, as very gently he unfolded his opinions. It was the will of Allah, he said, that people otherwise so clever should go mad over this point of a separate sovereign State. They forget history. When the Moghuls came here, he said, they turned themselves gradually into children of the soil. Babar and, after him, Akbar developed the idea of an Indian nationality. Even the much-maligned Aurangzeb gave annual grants to Hindu temples, If I would only go and ask Dr. Sen in the Records Library to show me some interesting documents, I would come to know how rapidly the idea was germinating that Indian political nationality was one thing, one's own religion quite another. Now that a section of the British people wish that some Indian Muslims should absorb this new poison that religion and nationality are inseparable terms, we should be on our guard and see why they want us to fall into the trap.

Three Suggestions

The dignified old gentleman remarked that in his opinion three things should be done by any Government anywhere in any part of India, unless that Government wants heads to be broken and wishes to sit chuckling over the phenomenon. He would advise that all the vernacular press should be so rigorously censored for a time by people who are neither Hindus nor Muslims—have Parsi officials for the purpose, he said that not a trace of communal rancour remains in it. He would suggest that vigilance committees in each 'mohalla' should promptly squelch any attempt to start mischievous rumours. He would also suggest that primary education in a particular locality should be given to all the children of the locality together in one school in the language which 80 per cent of the population speak. The mischief lies, he said, in separating youth from the very beginning and making them communally conscious.

With a profound obeisance the old gentleman rose and walked to the door. Turning round he said to my Muslim friend to interpret to me his hope that Jinnah Saheb would consider it necessary to learn the Quran by heart, particularly those verses where the Prophet says that believers should not bring discord where there was peace. Then with a little smile on his face he remarked "if Jinnah Saheb learns these verses from Maulana Abul Kalam, so much the better." When he had gone, I felt he had left behind him an atmosphere of cultured ease, a sense that historically India remained one and indivisible and would remain so, a country where a variety of cultures would be flowing together and producing an outlook on life, so humane and so full of understanding, so kindly and so forgiving that it would teach humanity, how to live truly, nobly and fully.

And then I met the young man from Aligarh. From this Muslim edition of a Baldur von Schirach I learnt that the lathi-way was the best way towards "Pak" dom.

COMMUNAL HYSTERICS IN H DERABAD

(BY A HYDERABADI)

7th July, 1946.

Passing through Hyderabad Dr. Moonje said, in a press interview, something complimentary about Sir Mirza Ismail, the Prime Minister-designate of Hyderabad. Although it was well-known for months that Sir Mirza was offered and had accepted the office of the President of the Nizam's Executive Council in succession to the Nawab of Chhatari it seems that somebody in New Delhi was waiting for an excuse to go into hysterics over this appointment. The local agents of the Muslim League, the so-called leaders of the Ittahadul Muslimeen, have been in constant touch with the Qaid-e-Azam and I am told that recently he upbraided some of them on their passive acceptance of the Nizam's choice. Knowing as these local leaders did that the question of Sir Mirza's appointment was a settled fact and that even the Viceroy had already given his approval to the Nizam's proposal they were at a loss to find an excuse for raising this question on a communal plane. There was nothing in the career of Sir Mirza to show his anti-Muslim leanings. Yet as the marching order came from the Qaid-e-Azam, the President of the Ittahadul Muslimeen was suddenly galvanised into precipitate activity and came out with a press statement strongly condemning the appointment on the ground that Sir Mirza is supposed to be pro-Congress. This protest follows the rebuff which the Qaid-e-Azam is reported to have received at the hands of the Nizam who had told him, in answer to his letter of protest, that he should mind his own business. Not taking this rebuff seriously Mr. Jinnah, it is stated, again tried to arrogate to himself the role of a mentor and again wrote to the Nizam insisting on the appointment of either Sir Nazimuddin or Sir Firoze Noon in place of Sir Mirza. Again he is reported to have been asked by the Nizam to remember that it was no business of his. Thus began the underground activities of the Ittahadul Muslimeen linked up with the headquarters of the Qaid-e-Azam. What has surprised many Hyderabadis is the fact that the very leaders who used to prate so much of the inviolability of the ruler's personal and inherent prerogatives are now making barefaced attempts, under the reported directives of Mr. Jinnah, to interfere with those prerogatives. The very people who used to parade their loyalty to the ruler, in season and out of season, are now staging a 'revolt' against the Nizam's authority and are bent on turning Hyderabad into a cockpit of communal intrigues just to please Mr. Jinnah. This move, by the so-called leaders of Hyderabadi Muslims, hits not so much Sir Mirza as it does the authority of the Nizam who used to be set up by these very men as a symbol of Muslim prestige. What a climb down, what an irony! This direct interference with the internal affairs of Hyderabad invited and encouraged by a local coterie of foolhardy Jinnahists, is preparing a noose to hang themselves. Sir Mirza's appointment, already announced by the Nizam is a settled fact and no onslaught by Mr. Jinnah or his local satellites can unsettle it. In fact it involves a question of honour so far as the Nizam is concerned.

* * *

Mr. Jinnah arrives here to-morrow and the local Ittahadies are preparing a noisy welcome for him. Yesterday they wanted to call a public meeting to protest against the appointment but it was disallowed by the authorities. Yet it looks as if Mr. Jinnah is, in his usual style, going to stage a demonstration. It is given out that he proposes to take up the question with the Nizam and no doubt the Nizam will be threatened with dire consequence in case he does not bow down to the great Qaid-e-Azam!

Naturally the non-Muslim majority of the Nizam's subjects resents this state of affairs as well as the bullying indulged in by the local Muslim leaders. I will not be surprised if this state of affairs results in a counter move on the part of Hindu leaders who rightly refuse to recognise the right of Muslim leaders to create a communal situation by inviting outside interference in internal questions. If during his four days' stay in Hyderabad, Mr. Jinnah chooses to employ his usual shock-tactics he will be doing a great disservice to Hyderabad and no doubt the responsibility of creating communal trouble in Hyderabad must rest with him.

The feeling among the saner elements of Hyderabad Muslims does not approve of this kind of opportunism and they certainly do not relish the idea of making Hyderabad and the Nizam a mere protege of the Qaid-e-Azam.

TÊTE-À-TÊTE

WITHOUT COMMENT

LONDON, July 9 (Reuter): "The remarks of the Archbishop of Canterbury on the situation in Palestine are hardly helpful and would have been better left unsaid", writes the "Daily Worker".

The Archbishop occupies such a great authoritative position that a plea for mediation and some expression of understanding of the Jewish case might have contributed to bringing the deadlock to an end. Instead, Dr. Fisher chose to speak in barren tones of.. officialdom", the "Daily Worker" adds.

* * *

Mahatma Gandhi, we gather, has been showing keen and active interest in the question of the cleanliness of Harijan quarters.

This Dr. Ambedkar would be justified in denouncing as an interference in the distinctive affairs of the Scheduled Castes and, therefore, as an interference involving a life and death question for Dr. Ambedkar and Mr. Rajbhoj.

★ ★ ★

Talking of Scheduled Castes, the "community" has decided to launch a passive resistance movement at Poona.

We immediately demand an assurance that the Aga Khan Palace and the Ahmednagar Fort have been got ready by the Congress Ministry.

* * *

The Qaid-e-Azam has signalised his arrival at Hyderabad (Dn.) with this advice: "At this moment statesmanship demands that Hyderabad should face not only internal issues but the All-India developments....with harmony and co-operation amongst all communities".

Suppose the internal issues turned upon the 80 or 90 p.c. of the population?

A crisis—the usual one—is again threatening the Muslim League—Hidayatullah Ministry in Sind consequent on the resignation of two members, Khan Bahadur Laghari and Khan Bahadur Khoso.

These defections are serious, but couldn't they be—er—Bundeali Khan-ed? We hope no stone will be left unturned by Sir Ghulam Husain to retrieve them, especially when the Qaid-e-Azam has, with his unique talents for remarkable discoveries, declared: "You know we are going through very critical times and facing issues of life and death."

* * *

There is, of course, a complication introduced by Mr. Laghari, who has already written to the Governor about it, thus presumably trying to forestall a visit and inquiry by His Excellency's Private Secretary.

Nevertheless, Sir Francis Mudie should send the Private Secretary—er—to make sure, let us say, that the letter was in fact, genuine and written by Mr. Laghari himself.

The Secretary-General of the Arab League, Abdurrehman Azzam Bey has declared that "Arab States do not fear the Jewish Army—they fear the forces behind the Jewish Army".

The "forces behind the Jews" will accept the compliment in their own right spirit.

From a Paris report dated Monday: The Russian Foreign Minister then went on to call Mr. Byrnes's submission of this question as "an outrageous imposition of American will upon the Conference".

Which, of course, could only and unavoidably be countered by a generous imposition of the Soviet "veto".

But all is well now.

STABBINGS AGAIN IN AHMEDABAD

Assailants In One Case Come In Car And Drive Away, Evading Police

AHMEDABAD, July 9 (API): Seven stabbing incidents occurred in Ahmedabad again to-day, thus disturbing the gradual return of the peace in the city. One of the victims died in the hospital. As the news of these stabbings spread, shops which had only opened during the past two days began to close down once again.

The District Magistrate Mr. Barve at a Press Conference said that the people should not get panicky at these incidents of stabbing and urged them to "be bold enough to apprehend the assailants." "The present hours of curfew will continue from 7 p.m. to 6 a.m., but 24-hour curfew will be reimposed in places where frequent cases of stabbing occur."

PRESS BAN

The District Magistrate has served an order to-day on Mr. N. N. Desai, Editor of "The Bharat", a language daily, directing him not to publish anything concerning the riots without his prior approval.

The first stabbing to-day occurred near the Richey Road which during the recent disturbances, was the scene of a number of previous similar incidents. The police who were near at hand chased the assailant. He, however, escaped into the byelanes. This was followed by four other cases of stabbing on the Relief Road and five in Jamalpur.

ASSAILANTS CAME BY CAR

At one place, the assailants came in a motor car and drove away before the police could apprehend them.

The police have, however, rounded up a number of persons at each place of incident.

The Citizens' Peace Committee have issued a statement, warning the public against being misled by one-sided statements. The Committee point out that both the communities have suffered in men and material in the present disturbances, their shops looted and place of worship desecrated.

The total number of deaths since the commencement of rioting is 50 and the total number of injured is 331.

"BRITISH HAND" BEHIND KASHMIR BAYONETS

Nehru Suspects Connivance By Political Department

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

"The concurrence of the incidents of Kashmir with the episode of the negotiations at Delhi is baffling. I do not fix the blame on anybody in the picture, but there is one thing quite certain that such incidents never happen unless there is power of the Political Department behind them." declared Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, President of the Congress, with regard to the recent happenings in Kashmir.

Panditji was speaking at a reception given to him and Maulana Abul Kalam Azad by the members of the Indian Merchants' Chamber this evening at the office of the Chamber. A distinguished gathering, including Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, some members of the Bar and leading businessmen, was present at the occasion.

He drew a graphic and moving picture of the Kashmir episode. It was something peculiar, he said. India was passing through an important phase in her history. Negotiations were in progress at Delhi Independence was touching her threshold. A change in her relations with the States was impending. When he was faced with bayonets and guns in Kashmir a glaring contrast swam before his eyes. 'Only yesterday I was in Delhi carrying on negotiations with the British Cabinet Mission. Today I am confronted with bayonets and guns by the State authorities." There was some reality in it, he added. The hand of the British Government was lurking there.

INDIANS ABROAD

Next he drew the attention of the audience to the excesses of the Ceylonese and the South Africans towards the Indians. A free India, he said, would not treat Ceylon as a foreign land. "They may be erring on the extreme, but they are ours". A day will come, he said, when India and Ceylon will be linked closer together. He, therefore, felt the urgency of looking at Ceylon with caution and restraint. Dealing with South Africa, he said, that it was not only a question of the honour of Indians but of their future as well.

Traversing the field of international politics Panditji remarked that it was a year since the war was over, but the world still knew no peace. The world seemed to have lost its stability and still finds it difficult to regain it. The curse was not a feature of only international relations. It had invaded different countries. America was in the grip of internal instability. The whole world was suffering from a malady, he added.

With regard to India, he said, that at present she was in the throes of slavery and drowned in degradation. The day she became free she would rank among the greatest powers of the world. There would not be any intermediary stage for her. Though she was not independent yet the shadow of her independence was casting itself on other countries. She occupied an important position in the strategy of the world. In the Indian Ocean she commanded a key position.

APPEAL TO BUSINESSMEN

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru concluded with an appeal to the business community of Bombay to study the problems of the country and lend a helping hand in solving them, rather than create difficulties. "Your community is narrow-minded and selfish; it cares more for dividends than for anything else," he said, "but you should not become oblivious of the fact that in international economy your influence is significant. You will play an important part in moulding the destiny of the world. Rajas and Maharajas are a dead part of the world, and similarly the landlords and zamindars. But you constitute a live part. Hence special responsibilities rest upon you. Bombay is free from the hold of the English businessman. It has played an outstanding part in the national struggle and I hope it will keep up the tradition."

AZAD'S DELIGHT

Maulana Abul Kalam Azad gave expression to great delight at the honour done to him and said that the memory of these happy moments would never be effaced from his mind. He referred to the critical stage India was passing through. The exigencies of the moment, he said, demanded sacrifice and service from every Indian. The business community he said, had rendered valuable help in the past and he hoped that in future they would evince greater zeal and enthusiasm in national affairs.

Earlier Mr. Hussein Hasham Premji, President of the Indian Merchants' Chamber, thanking the Maulana Saheb and Panditji for gracing the Chamber, with their presence eulogised the services rendered by the Maulana Saheb to the country as the President of the Indian National Congress. To Panditji he wished God-speed success in the task ahead.

The silence of the business community, he said, should not be taken to mean that they were not alive to the intricate and serious nature of the problems awaiting solution. The Indian Merchants' Chamber, he added, had always stood by those who were in the vanguard of the country's fight for freedom.

AWAKENING IN KASHMIR

PESHAWAR, July 8. (A.P.I.) The people of Kashmir are now wide awake. I have been greatly impressed by their spirit of freedom, said Khan Abul Gaffar Khan, Frontier Congress leader, on his return to Peshawar yesterday evening from his short visit to Kashmir.

Giving impression of his Kashmir visit, Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan said: "The people of Kashmir greatly resented the ban on the entry of Pt. Nehru into the State. The people have confidence in Shaikh Abdullah whom I met".

Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan appeared to have benefited by his trip as he looked much brighter and healthier.

MANKAD BRINGS INDIA VICTORY

Return Match Drawn At Old Trafford: Lancashire Skittled Out For 172

BY LEARIE CONSTANTINE

MANCHESTER, July 9. (Reuter): India made such a brilliant comeback against Lancashire at Old Trafford, venue of the Second Test, that after seeming in acute danger of a follow on, they came triumphantly in sight of victory.

This was denied them chiefly by a dogged defensive innings from Lancashire's acting captain, Cyril Washbrook. Still suffering from badly bruised ribs, Washbrook held himself back in the batting order in the hope that he would not be needed. Then with six men out for 104, Lancashire only 54 ahead and two hours and a quarter possibly left for play, Washbrook found himself compelled to bat. He could put little power into his strokes, but he stayed to the end and averted any possibility of the county champions losing the match.

MANKAD DEADLY

But for him, Lancashire might well have succumbed, for the earlier batsmen shaped poorly against Mankad on a wicket giving him some help but not enough to justify their indecision. Rarely did he bowl a loose ball and by flight and constant change of pace and spin, he caused persistent worry.

Lancashire were all out for 172, finishing 122 ahead.

India did not bat again. For reaching the highest score of the tour India was indebted to Merchant whose Marathon innings continued for another hour today before Pataudi declared the innings closed at 456 for 8. He batted eight hours and ten minutes for his 242 not out which is the top score so far in this English first class season. His innings contained 25 fours and many other delightful strokes.

At the end of the innings he displayed the same intense watchfulness as in the first over and once more proved the mainstay of the team's batting. He deserves a rest and according to Manager Gupta, he will not play in the match against Derbyshire beginning tomorrow at Chesterfield. This will be the first time that Merchant has stood down.

In view of Hindlekar's strained back, Nimbalkar's injury is disquieting but Hindlekar is making a good recovery and may play tomorrow. Nimbalkar will be out of the game for several matches. His dislocated thumb is in splints.

Nariman's Right To Practise In Rangoon Questioned

Doshi's Trial Adjourned Till Thursday To Enable Bombay Advocate To Prepare Reply

RANGOON, July 9, (API): Choon Foung, Government Advocate today sprang a surprise in the court by questioning the right of Mr. K F Nariman, advocate, Bombay High Court, who is defending Mr. Manilal Doshi, former officer of the Azad Hind Government to appear in court. He said that under instructions from the former Director of Crown Office he would raise the question relating to the right of Mr. Nariman to appear in this court as a matter of principle in view of the fact that there is no rule or authority by which this court could grant Mr. Nariman permission to appear. Foung pointed out that the circular 17 of 1933 of the High Cout which was issued under old Burma Codes Act and which authorised advocates of other high courts to appear in Burma courts was no longer operative and effective as Section 23 of the old act had been omitted in the Burma Codes Act, 1945.

NARIMAN'S PROTEST

Mr. Nariman protested against the attitude of the prosecution to raise the point in the midst of the case in which he had appeared five or six times. He said that he had come from Bombay for this particular case of an Indian subject from Bombay and had no desire to continue to practice here but to fly back as soon as the case was over. "What is the meaning of this belated move", he asked.

Mr. Nariman told the court that he first appeared with Mr. J. K. Munshi before Justice Thein Maung with the latter's permission for bail application for Mr. Doshi. The predecessor in the present sessions judge had given him permission to appear in the court. When the case started he appeared for Mr. Doshi with the permission of the present judge who thereby endorsed the permission given by his predecessor.

Judge: "If the permission given by his predecessor is wrong it has to be rectified."

Mr. Nariman submitted that the court could not revise its own order as it could be done only by a higher judicial authority.

JUDGE'S REPLY

The judge said that his predecessor allowed Mr. Nariman to appear in the court and he had no objection but in view of the point raised by the Government Advocate the matter would have to be referred to the High Court.

The judge adjourned the case till Thursday when Mr. Nariman will reply to the Government Advocate's point after ascertaining the latest Burma Rules.

Earlier the judge overruled Mr. Nariman's objection that the court could not try the case without the sanction of the Commissioner of the Division. The judge said that the case against Mr. Doshi did not come under the clauses in question in the Governor's clemency proclamation issued in October. He similarly overruled Mr. Nariman's supplementary objection that the court could not try the case either with or without the permission of the Commissioner of the Division.

BURDEN OF SWARAJ HEAVY, SAYS 'C. R.'

Asks Youth To Prepare Themselves For Task Ahead

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

An appeal to youth not to be led away by slogans and shibboleths, but to prepare themselves to shoulder the responsibilities of new India, was made by Mr. C. Rajagopalachariar, speaking at a public meeting under the auspices of the Matunga People's Association at Napoo Gardens, this evening. "You must have a thinking mind for a reasoned approach to the problems of life. Action demands reason" he said.

Rajaji continued: "Your veteran leaders' have built a house; by the time it is white-washed and swept clean and made ready for use, you must prepare yourselves to live in the house. It is easy to fight, but it is very difficult to bear the burden of Swaraj!

"Mere forging of a constitution does not mean liberty; we may have a beautiful constitution and can still be slaves. Real liberty of the people depends upon honest, efficient, execution of the constitution.

"At present there is a good deal of corruption in this land. If we continue to be greedy and corrupt we will not get Swaraj" Rajaji appealed to the people to cultivate the quality of honesty. "It is not very difficult to be honest," he said "I have been honest for sometime! I have found it very easy!" he added amidst laughter.

"Let us follow the Mahatma", continued Rajaji, "not by wearing the dhoti knee-deep, but by being honest."

Mr. Rajagopalachariar earnestly appealed to South Indians to shed their exclusiveness and orthodoxy.

Rajaji, at the same time, pleaded so the Bombayites not to look upon South Indians as foreigners, but to treat them as their own brothers.

Earlier in his speech, Rajaji, referring to Dr. Subbaroyan, who was also present at the meeting said that the latter was lately more interested in cricket, than in politics. Speaking about cricket he observed that the fact that the Indian Cricket team could beat Britain occasionally was proof of our potential capacity to defeat them in politics too.

ma, M.L.A., Mr. Prithvi Singh Azad, Mr. Meherchand Khanna, M.L.A., Finance Minister, N.W.F. Province, and Mr. K. T. Shah. The eighth seat will be filled by a member of the Unionist Party, it is learnt.

Akalis For Constituent Assembly

INDORE, July 9, (U.P.I.): An indication that the Akali Sikhs may enter the forthcoming Constituent Assembly was given by Sardar Mangal Singh, M.L.A., (Central), and a prominent Akali Leader in an interview to the United Press of India.

ANGLO-INDIANS TO LINE UP

RAWALPINDI, July 9, (A.P.I.): Mr. C. E. Gibbon, Anglo-Indian representative in the Punjab Assembly speaking at a largely attended meeting of the Anglo-Indian community here said: "Our community stands at the cross roads. I have decided to face the issues with all the courage I can command and help you to face it too. But remember that as your representative in the Punjab Assembly and, God willing, in the Constituent Assembly, I shall represent only those Anglo-Indians who have decided to make India their permanent home. On no account can I lend myself to renegadism and egotistic individualism".

WHY CABINET MISSION FAILED

Alluding to the Interim Government proposals made by the British Cabinet Mission Mr. Gibbon said an attempt was made to appease the political parties.

"One great political party, the Indian National Congress was not there to be appeased. It was there to see that justice was done. Failing in their dirty game, the Cabinet Mission abandoned their project".

Is U.S. Dollar Heading Towards Depreciation?

Impact On Gold Premium In India And Eastern Markets

LONDON, July 8, (Reuter): There is a run on the dollar! It remains to be seen how far it will go, but its existence seems established by unimpeachable reports that many countries want to exchange dollars into gold, and are managing to exchange them through Bank of Mexico and in other ways.

Many countries have large amounts of dollars as a result of American spending abroad for various services rendered during and since the war.

The important question is how this run will affect the dollar. In the past more than one run has generally been needed to break currencies, as for example the French franc which intrinsically appeared to be much weaker than the dollar appears to be now. The most important question is how American economy will be affected when Americans realise that a run on the dollar is now being added to the various other politico-economic confusions.

EFFECT IN INDIA

The run started before the breakdown of United States Price Controls. In certain circumstances, that breakdown might prove to be the thing to stop the run—if unfettered production restored the dollar's real value both internally and externally.

The immediate impact is on gold premium in the Eastern countries. If the dollar depreciates (which is not yet in the picture but is coming nearer towards it than it was), the gap between the New York gold price and that of the Eastern free bullion markets would, of course, be partly closed by the former rising and not wholly by the latter falling. Any weakening of India's big gold premium will be limited by heavy import duty and other hindrances to gold imports.

Every dollar outside the United States represents a claim on the United States gold stock. For the United States treasury to stop honouring them when presented would mean that United States Gold was off the Gold Standard which would presumably a crisis...

The barriers to international bullion movements (those barriers caused the great wartime discrepancies in bullion prices) remain formidable, though lessening. But the southern side door (through Mexico) into the U. S. Treasury's gold stock now seems open, and it is not a negligible door and may not long remain the only door. The Bank of Mexico, it is reported, sold more than five million dollars worth of gold in a single day recently. That is trifling compared to the total United States gold stock of around 20,000,000,000 dollars and the Bank of Mexico does not sell that amount every day. But the withdrawal of quite a small fraction of the total U. S. gold stock could appreciably influence both American sentiment and eastern free bullion markets, some of which are very narrow (though India could probably absorb much gold albeit not without some price reaction.

The number of dollars floating around in the world outside the United States could, if they can be presented withdraw a very big fraction of the United States gold stock, and signs increasingly are that they can be presented. After completing the certification of non-enemy ownership of assets now in the United States in Swiss names, Switzerland might become one of the centres through which dollars from other countries could be presented to the U S. Treasury for exchange into gold; one major world banking centre would then be on the job. M. Peron might regard it advantageous for Buenos Aires to become another such centre, in which case Buenos Aires alone might clearly handle much more than Argentina's own 900,000,000 dollars. The Bank of England will not participate in this business—but it has been asked to!

ALLEGED CHEATING

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

K. Krishnaiya of Messrs. Canara Bank Ltd., arrested on a charge of cheating the Bank to the extent of Rs. 9,000, was produced to-day before Mr. K. J. Khambhata, Presidency Magistrate Girgaum Court.

The prosecution alleged that the accused was introduced to the Bank by one Mr. Shetty who is an old employee of the Bank. At the instigation of Mr. Shetty accused was made to open a savings account by depositing Rs. 900/- on 22-6-'46. Shetty thereafter was alleged to have made false entries in the Bank ledgers, and asked accused to withdraw Rs. 9,000 from the Bank. At the time of drawing, Rs. 9,100 was shown in the account of the accused. Soon after, it was stated that Mr. Shetty also left the Bank on leave, on some false pretext.

In the meanwhile, the Bank authorities having detected the fraud informed the police who arrested Krishnaiya at the Bank premises yesterday.

Suspect Shetty is still at large.

'Times' Unhappy Over Harijan Support To Congress

Wants Mahatma's Immense Influence To Be Utilised Inside Constituent Assembly

LONDON, July 9 (Reuter): The independent and influential 'Times' today says that there will be general regret that Mr. Gandhi has not permitted himself to be nominated for the Constituent Assembly.

"His unique influence, if it is exerted from outside rather than from inside, tends to be unpredictable," it says. "That he can still dominate counsels of the Party became clear when he induced the Working Committee to break with the short-term plan on the issue of the inclusion of a Congress Muslim, it was again illustrated in Bombay last week-end.

"The fighting speeches of Congress Socialists, a formidable and growing section of opinion among the younger men, were received with enthusiastic applause when they demanded scornful rejection of the Cabinet Mission's plan but when the time for voting came, it was the calm exposition by Mr. Gandhi of his personal opinion that secured approval of the plan by a four to one majority.

"It is impossible to imagine Mr. Gandhi disinteresting himself in the Constituent Assembly which will determine the future administration of his country; and it is assuredly better that his influence should be exerted consistently as a participant in its work rather than spasmodically as an outsider."

UNCERTAIN FACTOR

The "Times" thinks that the Congress Party list headed by the new President Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and his immediate predecessor is particularly strong and remarks that it is "extended beyond the ranks of the Party by the inclusion of such distinguished elder statesmen as Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru as well as of representatives of minority interests and women's organisations."

It notes that the Muslim League list contains most of those, who have emerged into prominence in connection with the Pakistan campaign and continues: "Sikhs are still an uncertain factor. They would be well advised to take their place in the Constituent Assembly and trust to their solidarity and respect they command for the protection of their essential interest. Their position is far stronger than that of the scheduled castes, who in spite of their numbers are politically ill-organised from poverty and ignorance and desire to be recognised rather as a separate element than as recipient of the charity of the Congress Party.

"They fear they may fare badly in the elections and they have been demonstrating lately in Delhi and Bombay. They are determined that their cases shall not go by default when the new constitution is being framed."

FAIREST PLAN

The "Times" summarises the scheme by which choice of representatives are being made and adds: "This plan in addition to being the fairest that could be devised as a substitute for universal suffrage, which most people wanted, but nobody was prepared to wait for, has the advantage of great flexibility."

It concludes: "The task before the Assembly is immense and the prospects of success depend largely upon the wisdom of great parties and interests in nominating representatives, who are due to stand for the election next week."

STATES' PEOPLES MUST HAVE VOICE IN FREE INDIA SET-UP

Standing Committee Says Decision Of Constituent Assembly Not Binding

A resolution viewing with displeasure the fact that both the British Government and the rulers of Indian States had ignored the people of the Indian States in connection with the recent constitutional negotiations and refusing to recognise any decision taken by the Constituent Assembly without the approval and consent of the elected representatives of the people was adopted by the Standing Committee of the All-India States' People's Conference, which met for over two hours at the Congress House on Tuesday afternoon.

The Committee decided to set up a small five-man committee with powers to co-opt two more, to deal with questions connected with the Constituent Assembly. This multi-purpose committee, it is understood, will have its office in Delhi.

The Standing Committee also adopted a resolution expressing sympathy with and support to the South African Indian passive resisters.

It is understood that the Committee also considered the situation in Kashmir, the lifting of the ban on the State Congress in Hyderabad and of appointing a Commission of investigation into Hyderabad. This commission, it is understood consists of Mr. K. T. Bhashyam, Mr. Vyas and Mr. T. M. Verghese. A resolution on Kashmir and other states may be passed when the committee meets again on Wednesday.

The following is the text of the three resolutions passed by the committee today:

"The Standing Committee have noted with displeasure that the British in India as well as the Rulers of the State are continuing to ignore the people of the States in regard to the steps being taken in connection with the Constituent Assembly. The people of the States will not recognise any decisions taken without their approval and consent and representations from the States must come from the people by way of election."

"Resolved that the following committee be appointed to prepare material and draft proposals on behalf of the people of the States for the coming constitutional changes in India as a whole and internally in the States. The Committee will take such steps as may be necessitated by the meeting of the Constituent Assembly and by the States Negotiating Committee so as to ensure that the rights of the people of the States are safeguarded and the aims and objects of the All-India States' Peoples Conference are advanced. The Committee will consider questions arising out of the incorporation of the States in an all-India Federal Union, Fundamental Rights and the establishment of responsible Government internally in the States. The Committee will confer whenever necessary with the expert committee appointed by the Congress to prepare material for the Constituent Assembly.

Dr. Pattabhi Sitaramiah, Shaikh Mohammed Abdulla, Mr. K. T. Bhashyam, Swami Ramnanda Tirth, Mr. Balwant Rai Mehta (convener) with power to add two more members."

"The Standing Committee of the All-India States' People's Conference congratulate the brave Indians in South Africa on the campaign of civil resistance started by them for the repeal of the barbarous measure known as the Land Tenure and Indian Representation Act and for the vindication of their national honour and individual self-respect. The Committee condemn the brutal and inhuman conduct of the Europeans in violently assaulting the peaceful and inoffensive Satyagrahis and assure their South African brethren of their full sympathy and support in respect of this great movement."

Care-Taker Govt. In A Quandary!

Secretaries Threaten To Resign Or Go On Leave

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT)
NEW DELHI, July 9.

That the care-taker Government should consult major parties on vital issues of policy before taking decisions is a suggestion for which support is being canvassed here.

Two major parties—Congress and League constitute opposition in the Central Legislature and also are known successors of the present Government.

The only known method of consultation is through Central Legislature the next session of which is not expected to meet before October. By that time, care-takers' Government must opt out according to Lord Wavell's own admission. One suggestion is to invite Congress and League to set up small committees. To refer such matters to Congress and League Working Committees would mean delay because these committees are called periodically.

Another suggestion is to refer such matters to Congress and League Presidents.

Developments are expected here in the near future.

That the senior-most secretaries from Care-taker Government are not taking things lying down is evident from the reported resignation of Sir Hugh Hood, Principal Secretary, Finance Department. Reports reveal that Viceroy Wavell had to use personal persuasion to induce Sir H. Hood not to press his resignation but to stay on for sometime. Some other Secretaries, it is reported are going on leave shortly to express their resentment.

Informal Meeting On Care-taker Govt.'s 'Grave Error'

BOMBAY, July 9, (A.P.A.): Members of the National Planning Committee, meeting in informal session under the chairmanship of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, adopted a resolution today asserting the failure to include a Planning Department in the Care-taker Government was "a grave error and omission."

"This informal meeting of the National Planning Committee notes with great disappointment the formation of the Care-taker Government out of which the Planning Committee has been excluded, thereby implying that the task of National Planning is regarded as of no importance in the eyes of those still in power in the governance of this country," the resolution said.

Foreign Ministers Reach Settlement

Adopt Four Rules Of Procedure To Go As Recommendation

PARIS, July 8. (Reuter): The 'Big Four' Foreign Ministers to-night agreed on four rules of procedure which will go to the 21-Nation Peace Conference as recommendations — leaving the Conference free to amend or suspend them.

The rules of procedure are: (1) A general commission—consisting of deputies of the heads of delegations—which will co-ordinate the work of the Conference, is suggested. Decisions of this General Commission will be taken by a two-thirds majority vote. (2) The Conference will have the right to amend or suspend rules or procedure recommended by the 'Big Four' Foreign Ministers.

(3) Five Political Commissions composed of countries actually at war with each of the five of the five former enemy satellite nations plus France will be created. The Commission for Italy will have 21 representatives plus France, that for Rumania 11 plus France, that for Bulgaria 12 plus France, that for Hungary 12 plus France and that for Finland 10 plus France.

FRENCH POSITION

The French representation on the five Political Commissions resulted from a proposal by the United States Secretary of State, Mr. James F. Byrnes. On the Commissions France will have the same status as at the Foreign Ministers Conference. She will not have a vote unless she was at war with the country concerned.

(4) In the five Political Commissions decisions will be taken by a two-thirds majority. In the event of a decision being carried, the minority will have the right to present its views to the plenary session. If no two thirds majority is attained, two or more divergent points of view may be submitted to the plenary session of the Peace Conference for a decision.

In addition to the five Political Commissions the 'Big Four' Foreign Ministers tonight also suggested that the Peace Conference should establish two economic commissions—one for Italy and one for the Balkan countries together with Finland, one military commission, one judicial commission and one drafting commission.

CONSIDERATION OF NEW RULES

In agreeing to recommend the rules of procedure to the Peace Conference, Mr. Byrnes this evening retained full right to consider any new rules of procedure suggested by the Peace Conference.

M. Molotov agreed that the heads of delegations should retain the right to give full consideration to any rules of procedure proposed at the Peace Conference.

Invitations to the 21-Nations Peace Conference, Reuter's Diplomatic Correspondent writes, will by tonight's decision of the "Big Four" Foreign Ministers be issued in the name of the Four Powers delegated by the Moscow Agreement to draft peace treaties—for submission to the peace conference—with Italy, Rumania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Finland.

CHINA PROTESTS

The Chinese Government was officially informed of the Moscow agreement and concurred in own exclusion from drafting the five European peace treaties. But the Chinese Government in Nanking has handed a protest to the Ambassador of France as the host power against the exclusion of China as an inviting power.

The protest alleged that the Moscow agreement of December 24, 1945, stipulated that the Peace Conference should be convoked by the Council of Foreign Ministers which included China.

LONDON, July 8, (U.P.A.): Warsaw Radio said tonight that the trial of Arthur Greiser, former Nazi Gauleiter of Danzig, has ended and sentence will be pronounced tomorrow.

GOLD & SILVER

Bombay, July 9

The Bullion market was quiet today under scattered selling. The recent sales of gold by the Mexican Government at low price of 40 cents have unnerved local dealers and there is no inclination to buy. However the market doubts that Indian traders will not be able to take advantage to import this cheap gold as the exchange is controlled and to secure dollar credit remains a problem.

Silver market opened to-day at Rs. 163/12 and under scattered selling declined at Rs. 163. Gold opened at Rs. 96/8 and quietened at Rs. 95/8. Sovereigns were placed at Rs. 66/4.

Later on there was increased selling pressure and forward silver declined at Rs. 162/6 and ready silver was quoted at Rs. 162/2. Gold weakened further on persistent selling at Rs. 94/2 while ready gold was quoted at Rs. 94/6.

The market remained weak on persistent selling and quotations were marked down. Final quotations were as under:—

	Rs.	as.	p.
Ready Silver	160	4	0
Forward Silver	160	10	0
Ready Gold	93	0	0
Forward Gold	92	10	0

BOMBAY COTTON

Bombay, July 9

The local cotton market was dull to-day with a restricted turnover. Even an ardent Bear will now admit that Indian cotton prices are too low as compared with American cotton prices. The official acreage report showing area under cotton cultivation over the U.S.A. Cotton Belt is not received but it is said to be 18,100,000 acres which is below last year.

The market opened to-day at Rs. 480 for September delivery and improved at Rs. 481 under scattered buying but thereafter there was utter absence of any buying and the market reacted at Rs. 480 under scattered liquidation.

The market is anxiously awaiting the Government attitude towards cotton. The problem of fixing prices requires good deal of thinking as American cotton prices have advanced sharply under the threat of shortage of supply. The statistical position of Indian cotton is very strong and the Government will have to revise their policy in conformity with the changed situation.

Thereafter the market ruled steady with scattered buying and September was quoted at Rs. 480/8 and July quoted at Rs. 472. The feeling in the market remains uncertain and there was less disposition to operate.

The market became quiet in the afternoon on increased long liquidation and September was quoted at Rs. 478. The market finally closed at 5-30 p.m. as under:—

BOMBAY PRODUCE

BOMBAY, July 9.

The produce market was steady at the opening but later ruled quiet on increased selling in Linseed.

There was some unfounded rumour that the Nizam Government has fixed groundnut quotation at Rs. 35 for Fall. In the local market G.I.P. Stations quality was quoted at Rs. 26/12. N. S. Rly. quality Rs. 25/8 and Latur Bold ready at Rs 25 Coromondal quality was quoted at Rs. 26.

Castorseed Madras Bombay delivery were quoted at Rs. 22/14. Navlakhi delivery was placed at Rs. 23/2 and Goa delivery quotation was Rs. 23.

Linseed ready opened at Rs. 24/10 and declined at Rs. 24/3. July/August delivery opened at Rs. 24/11 and eased off to Rs. 24/5 on increased selling.

Groundnut Oil Bombay bulls Rs. 17/4. Tank Wagon condition Rs. 16/14 and August delivery Rs. 16/5.

Wall Street Market Irregular

Uncertainty Over O. P. A. And Price Movements

NEW YORK, July 8.

Wall Street opened steady and moderately active. Operators returned from the extended weekend still handicapped by the uncertainty over the office of price administration and price movements consequently failed to indicate establishment of some sort of a definite trend.

Selected industrials, oils, food stocks and specialities managed to achieve improvements ranging upto one point but again numerous leaders suffered from lack of bids. A feature of trading was the activity of Canadian shares after Canadian dollars had been placed on a par with the United States dollar. Here too, however, movements were erratic with issues like Canadian Pacific distillers corporation, and international nickel showing gains upto one point while Dome mines, Hudson bay and International paper lost fractions.

The general market remained relatively thin during the morning in that the floating supply of available stocks continued meagre. Brokers anticipate continuation of selective bidding and irregular markets until Congress decides on further controls or free enterprise in which industry will have opportunity to achieve a volume of production to bridge the gap between supply and the overwhelming demand and thus supply its own cure for inflation timid bidding during the afternoon gave selected favourites including minings, buildings and tobaccos, a better complexion but many pivotals failed to benefit and continued in the doldrums.

The final hour saw movements either side of mostly fractions to one point with losses predominating after one of the slowest sessions for sometime. The activity in Canadian shares died down but prices for the most part held to the earlier pattern of mixed movements. There was no fresh feature to the general trading picture with chief attention of operators focussed on the Senate manoeuvring on price control. The market closed irregular.

CHICAGO GRAINS MARKET

CHICAGO July 8.

Maize and oats declined sharply on commission house selling attributed to weakness of cash markets and favourable weather and crop news as well as expectations of a heavy movement from the country. Winnipeg rye was offered down five cents without attracting buyers with the market again adjusting itself to the Canadian Government's action in placing the dollar on a par with United States currency.

Record Rise Of 5 Dollars Per Bale On N.Y. Cotton Exchange

NEW YORK, July 8.

Publication of bullish official acreage report which proved well under general expectations stimulated aggressive buying on the New York Cotton Exchange early in the afternoon and prices at one time were about 90 points over Friday's close. Indication of an already another extremely small American cotton crop reattracted attention to bullish statistical position, particularly as it already seems certain that the United States will have to dip into past surpluses in order to meet domestic and foreign demand during the coming season. The market eventually reached the daily permissible advance by the close, which was strong 100 points higher. Spot cotton prices advanced 98 points at 32.71c per lb.

Breach Of Solemn Pledges

Liaquat Ali Accuses Viceroy & Mission

Calls Meeting Of League Council At Bombay On July 28 "In View Of Serious Developments"

NEW DELHI, July 9. (A.P.I.): It has been decided, says Nawabzada Liaquat Ali Khan, Honorary Secretary of the All-India Muslim League, to convene a meeting of the Council of the All-India Muslim League at Bombay on July 28 and 29.

Since the Council passed its resolution on June 6 accepting the scheme embodied in the statement of the Cabinet delegation and the Viceroy of the 16th May and the 25th of May, certain developments have taken place. The Cabinet delegation and the Viceroy have gone back on their word in postponing the formation of the 'Interim' Government according to their final proposals embodied in their statement of the 16th of June and have broken their solemn pledges given in writing to the Muslim League in this connection.

Further, the Congress has accepted the long-term plan of the Cabinet Mission only conditionally with reservations and their own interpretation which is totally opposed to the authoritative statement made by the Cabinet Delegation and the Viceroy on the 28th of May clarifying their statement of the 16th May particularly with regard to the grouping of provinces which is the corner-stone of the Long-Term Scheme.

In view of these serious developments, it has been considered necessary that the Council should examine the whole position and decide as to what course of action should be adopted by the Muslim League under changed circumstances.

The Working Committee meeting will also be held on July 27 at Bombay.

Silver Conference Breaks Down

WASHINGTON, July 8. (U. P. A.): The Senate-House of Representatives conference on silver prices broke down to-day as Senate members stood firm on their demands for an immediate boost to 90.3 cents per ounce for silver sold by the Treasury Department to industrial users.

House members declined to accept the Senate provision authorizing silver sales at the 90.3 cent level for a two year period and dol. 1.29 level thereafter.

The House conferees will report their disagreement to the House of Representatives which must vote whether the House conferees should stand firm and accept the Senate provision or strive for a compromise. The House provided for silver sales at 71.11 cents per ounce.

Representative John Taber said the acceptance of Senate figures would "freeze" all silver stocks as mining interests would hold their supplies until the expiration of the two year period knowing they would gain higher prices thereafter. He said that no silver would be available to manufacturers under that proposal.

Senator Pat MacCarran, the leader in the fight for higher prices, said a compromise was unacceptable.

PALESTINE 'OUT OF BOUNDS' TO INVESTIGATORS

Hall Refuses Permission To M.P.'s To See For Themselves Prevailing Conditions

LONDON, July 8. (Reuter): Mr. George Hall, the Colonial Secretary, to-night refused a request from Mr. Sydney Silverman, a Member of Parliament, that a group of Members of Parliament should go out to Palestine to investigate at first hand how the recent operations were carried out.

It is not "opportune" that such a delegation should go out, said Mr. Hall, and so the facilities are refused.

This is an upshot of negotiations which, Reuter understands, have been going on for some Members of Parliament to see things in Palestine for themselves because of allegations of improper pressure, of physical violence being used, and of damage to property of the Jewish agency building and premises of the Women's International Zionist Organisation.

JERUSALEM, July 8. (Reuter): The Jewish Agency Press Bureau from its temporary headquarters in Aden hotel to-day wrote to the Palestine Government's Public Information Officer saying that it had been informed of 16 instances of maltreatment of Jews by British troops in Athlit camp in North Palestine.

Primate Criticised

LONDON, July 9, (Reuter): "The remarks of the Archbishop of Canterbury on the situation in Palestine are hardly helpful and would have been better left unsaid," writes the "Daily Worker."

The Archbishop occupies such a great authoritative position that a plea for mediation and some expression of understanding of the Jewish case might have contributed to bringing the deadlock to an end. Istead, Dr. Fisher chose to speak in barren tones of officialdom," the "Daily Worker" adds.

The Conservative "Daily Telegraph" supports the Archbishop's call for a clear pronouncement can now only take one of two courses. It must follow either the lines of the Joint Anglo-American Report or the Peel Commission.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR

Office of the Adjudicator (Railway Dispute):

No. N(1)

Council Hall,
Fort, Bombay.
Dated the 9th July, 1946.

NOTICE

WHEREAS a trade dispute between the Railway Administrations described below, namely the North Western Railway, East Indian Railway, Bengal Nagpur Railway, Bengal Assam Railway, Great Indian Peninsula Railway, Bombay Baroda & Central India Railway, Oudh Tirhut Railway, Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway and South India Railway, and their respective workers, has been referred to the Hon'ble Mr. Justice G. S. Rajadhyaksha, I.C.S., for adjudication, under Order No. LR.2(22) dated the 23rd April, 1946 of the Government of India in the Department of Labour, under Rule 81A of the Defence of India Rules, the points for adjudication being:—

(1) Whether the existing hours of work of railway servants, other than those to whom the Factories Act, 1934, applies, should be reduced and if so, to what extent and to what classes of railway servants; if reduced the date or dates by which any such reduction could be effected, taking into consideration the administrative difficulties, if any.

(2) Whether the grant of a compulsory periodic rest of a calendar day should be allowed to all railway servants, referred to in (1) above, including those designated as essentially intermittent workers: if not, whether periodic rests in any other form are recommended.

(3) Whether the existing provisions regarding leave reserve are satisfactory, if not the modifications required to provide reasonable facilities to railway servants, to enjoy leave due to them.

(4) Whether the existing leave rules and other holiday concessions applicable to railway servants, who are daily rated and/or in inferior service need liberalising and, if so, to what extent.

It is hereby announced, for the information of all concerned that the Adjudicator will be pleased to give due consideration to any statement of demands on the aforesaid matters which may be received (20 copies) in this office at the above address on or before the thirty first of July nineteen hundred and forty-six, from unions or associations other than those affiliated to the All India Railwaymen's Federation or from any individual employee of one of the Railway Administrations, who is not member of union.

By order of the Adjudicator.
